EXHIBITOR TESTIMONIALS

"It was indeed a great pleasure to participate in the Powder and Bulk Solids Exhibition and Conference 2016, which is a dedicated forum for sharing knowledge and addressing local problems at an international level related to the field of material handling systems. Many industries, have invested heavily and are also in the process of investing to adopt greener methods/technologies and such forums play a very important role to bridge the gap between the technology providers and the users. The presentations on various technical improvements and experience of projects were really informative and added value to the exhibition"
